

Summer Reading 2024

Denver Public Library

Join us for these exciting summer programs!

Tuesday, June 11 1:30

Rockin Reptiles! National Mississippi River Museum

Become a Herpetologist and get hands on with reptiles and amphibians!

Wednesday, June 19 1:30 (Note Change in Day)

Get ready for Adventures in Outer Space with musician and Storyteller Dino O'Dell!

Tuesday, June 25 1:30

Laura Ernst – Kinetic Entertainment

This talented acrobat has been featured on “America’s Got Talent”. Her tricks will AMAZE!

Tuesday, July 2 1:30-3:30 – STAR LAB Planetarium

Stop in the library and learn all about the planets and constellations in

The Grout Museum’s Mobil Planetarium. Drop in Program – Shows will take place every 20 min.

Tuesday, July 9 1:30

Join our friend comedian Dennis Porter for a wacky show that will delight readers young and old alike. The show features magic, comedy, and lots of interactive fun!

Tuesday, July 16 1:30

Entertainer Brent Allen presents “Alabama Max & The Last Book Dragon” Join Adventurer Max as he deciphers clues while learning about reading. Puppets, magic, and lots of silly fun is in store!

Tuesday, July 23 10:00 – 12:00 (Change in Time)

Join the Library Staff and some special guests on Tuesday July 23 10:00-12:00 in the morning at Cyclone City Park for Splash Pad Stories & Summer Fun activities! In the Evening join the Friends of the Library at Willow Run Swimming Pool for the Annual Glow Swim from 8:00-9:30. Admission is $2.00 per swimmer! Glow Sticks provided!

Tuesday, July 30 1:30

Realistic dinosaurs take the stage with Dinosaur Dimensions! Learn amazing facts about these prehistoric creatures in our finale program of the summer! Get your photo taken with a T-Rex and pick up some Dino treats at The Friends of the Library Treat Sale!